

Year 10	Life in Modern Britain					Rights and responsibilities
	British society: principles and values	The role of the media in British society	How do citizens bring about change in British society?	The UK's role in international organisations	What is the UK's role in international disputes?	What rights and responsibilities do citizens have?	Magna Carta and the beginning of British citizen rights.	Human Rights	The legal system	Law and international conflict	How do citizens make a change in the legal system?
Year 11	Taking citizenship action					Politics and participation
	Decide the issue and carry out initial research	Analysis of research	Planning the action	Taking the action	Impact and evaluation of action	Democracy	The British Constitution	UK Voting system and others	The power of parliament and government	Local and devolved government	How do citizens bring about political change?