

September 2023 first round allocation statement for Bristol Cathedral Choir School

As Bristol Cathedral Choir School is oversubscribed, the admissions criteria published on the School and Local Authority website have been applied to allocate the places that are available at the school.

Number of applications received

1145 on-time applications (330 first preferences, 449 second preferences and 366 third preferences) have been received for Bristol Cathedral Choir School which has a published admission number of 150.

9 places were required for children with the school named in their Education, Health and Care Plan. This left 141 places to allocate using the published criteria.

How the initial allocation of places was made

The 141 places have been offered to the following children:

1. Those children who are defined as looked after children and children who were previously looked after but immediately after being looked after became subject to adoption, a child arrangements order, or special guardianship order. (10 places)
2. Those children who are probationer choristers at The Cathedral. (8 places)
3. Those children who qualified as Music Specialists. (15 places)
4. Those children who are a son/daughter of a member of staff at BCCS. (2 places)
5. Those children who are at the named Feeder School. (54 places)
6. Those children with a sibling on roll at BCCS at the time of admission. (32 places)
7. Those children who live within the Bristol Postcode areas BS1 to BS16 who have been randomly allocated. (20 places)
8. Those children who live outside the Bristol Postcode areas BS1 to BS16. (None)

Bristol Cathedral Choir School appeals guidance

Bristol Cathedral Choir School (BCCS) is part of Cathedral Schools Trust (CST) who is the Admission Authority. CST employs Democratic Services at Bristol City Council to administer the appeal process for BCCS.

As a parent/carer you have expressed a preference regarding the school you would like your child to attend. However, if the year group applied for is oversubscribed and has reached its published admission number (PAN), the Admission Authority may not be able to meet your preference.

The appeal panel will take into account the reasons for your preference, and individual circumstances relating to your application. You may wish to write a further letter to the appeal panel in advance of your appeal. Any additional correspondence should be sent to School Admissions at Cathedral Schools Trust as soon as possible.

You will be given not less than 10 school days' notice of the date, time and place of the hearing at which you can be present and speak. You can, if you wish, be accompanied by a friend who may speak for you and represent your views to the appeal panel. Parents for whom English is not the first language may wish to arrange for an interpreter to be present. You are encouraged to attend the appeal panel meeting. If you prefer not to attend the panel will consider the case based on your written submission(s). Alternatively, a friend or representative may present the appeal on your behalf.

You may wish to write down in advance what you wish to say to the panel, and use your own notes to speak from on the day. It is important that you don't think afterwards of something you forgot to say, or wish you had said, as the panel must not accept additional information after the appeal has been heard.

You will need to demonstrate that your child's need for a place at BCCS outweighs the Admission Authority's reasons for refusing a place. You are also welcome to submit additional letters of support from professionals or other parties who have been, or are currently, involved with your child. Please submit all supporting documentation by Friday 5th May 2023. These may be letters which substantiate your case, or actively support your preference. The appeal panel will take into account all submissions received by 5th May 2023.

Following the Coronavirus pandemic, Democratic Services will continue to offer virtual school appeal admission hearings to all appellants.

Appeals will be held using Zoom. So long as you have access to a computer, tablet or phone you will be able to take part remotely. The clerk will provide you with all the information you need and they will have colleagues on hand to provide you with technical support. The sequence of events is likely to be:

School's case:

- Presentation of the school's case by the representative of the Admission Authority.
- Questioning by the parent/carer(s) and the Appeal Panel.
- Summing-up by the representative of the Admission Authority.

Parent/carer's case:

- Presentation of the case by the parent/carer.
- Questioning by the Appeal Panel/representative of the Admission Authority.
- Summing-up by the parent/carer.

If more than one family is appealing for the same school on the same day all parents/carers are invited to the same School's case hearing. The parent/carer's case will be held in private and will be confidential. It should not be necessary for a child to attend, or for there to be witnesses, other than a friend or interpreter mentioned previously.

The appeal panel will ask all parties to withdraw while considering a decision. The decision of the appeal panel will be sent to you in writing by the Clerk to the School Appeals Panel. The decisions of appeal panels are binding upon the parent and the Admission Authority, but parents have statutory rights under other legislation should they wish the matter to be investigated further.

Key Points

- Read the BCCS Admission Arrangements 2023/24 so that you understand how places are allocated at BCCS and how oversubscription criteria are applied to all applications.
- Send in your Appeal Form by Friday 5th May 2023.
- Think about your child's individual needs.
- Find out about BCCS and the school you have been offered.
- Decide what is unique about BCCS in terms of meeting your child's needs.
- Prepare your case.
- Backup your points with evidence – simply stating your child lives locally, has friends at the school or has always wanted to attend BCCS is not evidence.
